HENRY B. KANE '24 AWARD

Established in 1987, the Henry B. Kane '24 Award is given in recognition of exceptional service and accomplishments in the area of fundraising for the Institute.

Tip: Check out your nominee's OAD profile to see some of their volunteer roles or email alumnivolunteers@mit.edu to request their volunteer record, including previous awards (individuals can not receive this award more than once).

Introduction: Describe why you are nominating this person in a sentence or two. How do you know the nominee? Have you nominated them before? Are you excited to submit their name for consideration?

Describe the nominee's Contribution: leadership or role model contributions in fundraising. What fundraising positions has this person held? Have they chaired a gift committee? What kind of results have they generated in their fundraising tenure (use measurable data if possible)? Are they a member of any of the MIT Giving Circles (loyalty and leadership)?

Closing: Take this opportunity to restate the overall reason this nominee should be selected for this award, what sets them apart and thank the committee for their consideration.
