MEMBERSHIP RESOURCES
Benefits of Joining the MIT Club of New York
Dom Ricci ’99 PH

The MIT Club of New York connects you to all the local opportunities related to MIT, the Alumni Association in Cambridge, and other affiliated organizations in the New York metropolitan area. When you are a member of the Club in the 2008-2009 year, the benefits include:

- A full year of reduced admission to Club events, including professional seminars, cultural outings, social gatherings, and the MIT Speaker Series of lectures given by eminent MIT faculty and industry leaders.
- In response to the current market and economic environment, the Club is making the benefits of membership more valuable, with lower member prices for many events and more programming focused on career building and networking.
- Access to networking opportunities with alumni of MIT and other top-tier universities; service opportunities through community service projects; and leadership opportunities as a Club volunteer.
- Discounted memberships in associations such as the Penn Club of New York and the Hudson Union Society.

Patron level membership additionally provides extended benefits, including access to invitation-only dinners with select faculty and non-MIT speakers.

The officers of the Club are committed to building and maintaining a vibrant, diverse alumni community in the greater New York area, and we look forward to meeting you at our various events in the upcoming year. You can sign up for membership at www.mitclub.org or by submitting the registration form on the back of this newsletter. Please note that the membership year runs from July 2008 to June 2009, and you may be eligible for reduced or free dues based on your alumni status.

SOCIAL PROGRAMS
Kick-off ’08-’09!
Charlene Chuang ’05 BCS

On September 15, we kicked off the 2008-2009 year at Aleo once again. Old and new faces were present as Club President Karen Ho ’94 EE spoke about her enthusiasm for an event-filled and involved season for the MIT Club of New York. Our Directors each introduced themselves and noted upcoming cultural, professional, social and community service events for the fall and winter. Afterwards, we mixed and mingled, while enjoying delicious food and drinks.

CULTURAL EVENTS
Turner Exhibit Tour at the Met
Aurelie Thiele ’00 CS, ’04 PhD

On September 14, a group of 15 MIT alumni met for a guided tour of the Turner exhibition at the Metropolitan Museum. Our guide, a doctoral candidate in art history at NYU, was just amazing, and we'll definitely request her in the future. She walked us through the exhibition, emphasizing themes dear to Turner such as the use of two sources of light -- for example, the moon and its reflection in the water, and the emphasis on nature with the human element relegated to a small part of the foreground. Among other things, she compared two representations of the Battle of Trafalgar, one that had been commissioned by the king and one that had not, allowing Turner more freedom and originality in describing the scene. Instead of focusing on the naval victory, Turner chose to depict the death of Lord Nelson on the deck. Our tour guide shared many insights about the meaning of various paintings, the most enjoyable of which was learning that the little dog in "Mortlake Terrace" was added on the day the exhibitions opened. To everyone's surprise, Turner enjoyed seeing the little dog in his painting and kept it there.

Dear MIT Alumnus or Alumna:

As a graduate of MIT, you are one of a small and distinguished group. Do you still feel connected to MIT today? Have you received the full benefit of your MIT education? If you are not leveraging the networking, social, and educational benefits available to MIT alumni, then you may be missing great opportunities available to you.

There are approximately 936 MIT alumni in Minnesota and Western Wisconsin, 11% of whom are members of the MIT Club of Minnesota, a high ratio of club members to total alumni. The support of members builds the sense of MIT community in our area and provides valuable resources for the intellectually stimulating and enjoyable activities provided by the Club.

As an MIT Club of Minnesota member, you receive first priority at popular events, as well as discounted prices. This current 2008-9 membership year has included well-attended and diverse events such as:
- St. Paul Regional Water System tour
- Picnic and annual summer send-off
- Family fun Star Wars exhibit at SMM
- Physics Professor Bertschinger talk on Dark Energy
- NOAA Facilities Tour in Chanhassen
- MIT Enterprise Forum on female entrepreneurship
- Vino Squisito Wine Tasting Party
- Volunteer for Bridging
- Annual Holiday Party
- Eero Saarinen Exhibit at the Walker Art Center
- January Toast to IAP at Toast Wine Bar and Cafe
- Fireside chat with Sherwin Greenblatt, former Bose CEO
- Sustainability at the Minneapolis City Hall
- Monthly, informal after-work social gatherings

We are planning our 2009-10 events now. These should include a special speaker from Cambridge, technical tours of local laboratories and facilities, family-friendly events, and frequent social gatherings for our MIT10 (young alumni) and other alums.

The Club is currently granting memberships that will run through June 2010. Become a member, and take advantage of the vibrant Minnesota MIT community. Join today at http://alumweb.mit.edu/clubs/minnesota/ (“Membership”).

Best regards,

Karin Roof, President (Karin.Roof@alum.mit.edu)
